A CARD.

Having been suggested for nomination by the Democracy of Anderson County for the position of a representative in the next General Assembly, I desire to return my sincere thanks to the kind friends who made the suggestion in the card published last week, as well as to those who have indicated an endorsement of the suggestion since its publication. From deference to their wishes. I regret that circumstances impel me to the opinion that I should decline to become a candidate at this time. The race is too far spent to make it advisable to introduce new candidates; and my principal reason for declining to run is, that I do not think the best interests of the Democracy would be advanced by my candidacy. Besides this, personal considerations render it to my advantage not to become a member of the Legislature, if I could be elected. for it would call me from my profession at a busy season of the year, and also render it necessary for me to employ some one to take my place in the editorial work. Of course, however, I would cheerfully forego any personal interest if the people of my County needed my services in any position, but I am satisfied that men can be selected from the candidates already announced who will serve the County as efficiently as I could do, if not more so. I do not believe it is possible for a man to render more efficient service in any sphere than he can do by editorial work, and my friends may rest assured that no man takes a more lively interest in the success of the State and County Democracy than I do. I have given the greater part of my time and attention to assist in its achievement since the first agitation of the question. and must congratulate the people upon the flattering prospects before them. I desire to complete this battle as a private and not as an officer, and hence have made these plain statements in the hope that I may convince my friends that although I appreciate their compliment, yet it is best that I should not enter the

During the canvass two years ago he repeatedly declared upon the stump that he would appoint none but Republicans to office. This was announcing the principle for himself which he row condemns in others. How can the Governor, who declares he will appoint none but Republicans to office, complain of the Democrats to work for them? The Governor holds the offices in trust for the benefit of all the people, while the property of the citizen is his individually; hence, if the Governor makes partisan use of the offices. The defice of the stars and stripes descrated with this motto inscribed on it: "Reform or Death!" This is a Democratic County as there are but few colored people, and white Republicans are very scarce down here. It is rather hot for them to stay here. They were divided about raising the stars and stripes, one said if they raised it it would be cut down, for them, and those that put it up told me that they did not like to see it, but it is evident it is to get the colored vote. I shall remain here and finish my job if I live long enough or for a few error makes partisan use of the offices. — Dr. Benj. L. Brisbane, editor of the True South, published at Brunson's, S. HYMENEAL.

MARRIED, on the 28th of September, in Seneca City, at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Col. J. W. Livingston, by Rev. W. Cuttino Smith, Mr. GIDEON LEE, of Carmel, N. Y., to Miss ELLA LORTON, of Pendleton, S. C.

OBITUARY.

Mas. NANCY BRASWELL was born to Anderson County, S. C., about 86 years ago, according to one account, and 95 years ago by another, and died on the 15th day of September, 1876, after a long and painful illness. She lived, died and was buried on the place where she was born. She was the mother of 17 children, 16 of whom she raised, and who became heads of families. Only one of the children was privileged to be present at her burial. Her brother, Silas Massey, died a few days ago at the advanced age of 100 years. She lived a quiet, useful life, 30 years of which were spent in widowhood. She early connected herself with the Baptist Church, held an uninterrupted membership therein, and fell sweetly asleep in Jesus. Peace to her memory. MRS. NANCY BRASWELL was born in Tribute of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Anderson Division, No. 1, Sons of Temperance, held Thursday evening. Sept. 28, 1876, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, in the dispensation of an Allwise, yet mysterious Providence, it has pleased the great Patriarch above to remove from membership in our association, by sudden death, our worthy and esteemed brother, James R. Dougherty; and whereas, his untimely death at Bristol, Tenn., on the 14th instant, should remind us of the frailty and uncertainty of human life, the certainty of death, and the necessity of preparation therefor; be it, therefore,

1. Resolved, That in the death of our esteemed brother, James R. Dougherty, our Order has lost a consistent and worthy member, and the community a respected and useful citizen.

2. That we dedicate to the memory of our deceased brother is blank page in the minute book of this Division entires the following the source of the president entires the second of the Division entires the following the source of the president entires the second entire the pook of the Division entires the following the second entire the pook of the Division entires the following the second entires t
